Three of the UK's most experienced leaders of personal and professional transformation

THE CALL

An initiatory journey of Re-membering and Realignment

November 25th-27th 2016
Oxfordshire, UK

In the ancient tradition of Mystery Schools, Vessica offers a deeper exploration of Self, Soul and Other than is currently available in most forms of individual, organisational and professional development.

What wounded part of you has yet to heal?

What do you yearn for?

What Other calls to you?

These and other questions will form the core of a deep, immersive journey that will bring us to our deepest humanity and a taste of our sweetest potentials.

The workshop is led by three individuals with many years experience of embodied emotional and spiritual development.

Our methodology embraces poetics, ritual, presence, emotional healing and the sacred paths of meditation and the martial arts. We follow the classic initiatory form of separation and descent, transformation and return.

"William was amazing – so observant and insightful. He missed nothing and picked up on everything that was important to each person. His poetry readings were magical, and his attention to detail and energy with everyone was extraordinary".

William Ayot is an award winning poet, teacher, coach and ritualist. He travels the world delivering seminars and workshops for organizations and business schools. He has led rites of passage and intensive retreats. Writing includes: E-mail from the Soul: New and Selected Leadership Poems, which won The People's Book Prize. His latest book is Re-enchanting the Forest: Meaningful Ritual in a Secular World. William currently teaches at INSEAD, and is poet in residence at Oxford's Saïd Business School – he also coaches senior executives and creates bespoke rituals for individuals and groups.

"To work with Nicholas is to witness a master in action; inspirational, deeply caring, and wise beyond words. Quite simply, he will touch your soul"

Nicholas Janni has gained an international reputation for his transformational coaching and leadership development seminars, bringing consciousness development to organisations and business schools worldwide. He bridges the worlds of creative, personal, spiritual and professional development in a uniquely powerful, relevant and accessible way. Previously Nicholas was a theatre director. He taught acting at The Royal Academy of Dramatic Art in London, and directed his own theatre company. He has researched 'the zone' of peak performance for over 30 years and studied and practiced multiple mind/body/spirit disciplines.

"Andy gave me the greatest gift of all - he enabled me to reconnect with the music and the dance that lives always deep within me. His ability to create a space of both safety and challenge, and to combine deep listening with intuitive insight was just what I needed."

Andy Logan is an international leadership development consultant with over 30 years of experience in leading seminars, workshops and organisational interventions around the world. He is Managing Director of Centaur Leadership Consultancy, and Director of the High Performance Leadership Programme at Cranfield School of Management in the UK. He integrates a diverse spectrum of perspectives in his work ranging from the science of brain development to the profound insights of the world's wisdom traditions. He has received extensive training in psychotherapy, dance therapy, mythology, martial arts, and the meditative practices of the Himalayan Yoga Tradition.
